

Overseas Clinical Observership Program Application Form

1. Personal Data
Name	(Chinese)	Attach a recent photograph taken in the last 3 months
	(English same as shown on Passport)
Date of Birth	(yyyy/mm/dd)
Taiwan ID no.
Student ID no.
Grade year	5 th year only
English proficiency score (under 2 years)	(TOEFL/TOEIC/IELTS score and date and year taken)
Cellphone number
E-mail	(NCKU email)
2. If the School of Medicine arrange a course to help you prepare before going abroad, what would you want to learn or improve? Please suggest. (Example: Doctor Patient communication skills, English daily conversation etc.)
3. Check list:	<input type="checkbox"/> Application Form <input type="checkbox"/> English Transcript <input type="checkbox"/> Purpose Statement <input type="checkbox"/> Curriculum Vitae <input type="checkbox"/> English Proficiency score (under 2 years)
NOTE: 1. Despite there is bilateral agreement with partner universities, there may still be variables and chances that the exchange be cancelled. We will try to assist and rearrange to another university abroad if time permits. 2. Students going abroad will mainly be distributed to either group B, C, D, E or F, depending on the month travel overseas, and remember to enroll to the elective course: 自選科-國外實習(一)(二)(三) . 3. Participants are suggested to enroll to the one-credit course next semester, ‘Advance Medical English and Global Health (高階醫用英語與國際醫療)’ .

Application deadline: All interested students should submit their application to Ms. Ada Huang at the 4F, School of Medicine Office before the announced deadline.